

STUCK IN TRAFFIC

前面還有什麼車？

2014 Golden Tripod Award

It's time to go for a drive! Driving on the road is tricky – there are turns to make, signs to follow, potholes to avoid, and so many other cars! They line up in front of us and block the way. Thank Heaven Daddy's driving; he always knows exactly what to do, where to go, and even what kind of cars are up ahead. How many kinds are there?

Make the best of being stuck in traffic as we roll along on a vocabulary-building trip with Daddy, the world's best driver.

Zhe Ye 哲也/Author

Zhe Ye writes beautiful children's stories that are heavily influenced by ancient Chinese culture. Some of his best-known books include A Child's Chuang Tzu, Jingjing and the Peach Blossom Spring, Stories from the Dragon's House, and Little Things.

Liu Zhen-Xiu 劉貞秀/Illustrator

Illustrator Liu Zhen-Xiu instills her artwork with happiness, humor, and a compassion for nature. She has crafted several books, including a series featuring her dog, Hooby. Several of her titles, including Hooby and Ah Gan, Hooby Meets a Rabbit, and My Big Dog Hooby were shortlisted for the Hsin-Yi Children's Literature Award.

Look up ahead, we're all stuck in traffic.

A red car, yellow car, a van with flowers.
A round car, square car, a car with a horn.

A bus, a trailer, a school bus, a taxi.
Who's at the front of the queue?

A red double-decker, a camouflage jeep.
A four wheel drive, a holiday van and a horse with a cart.

A Volkswagen beetle, an old-fashioned tricycle, a television van.
Who's at the front of the queue?

A wedding cortege, the bride and the groom. A stunt man on his motorbike, a juggler on one wheel, and a float all the way at the front.

A police car, a fire engine, an ambulance, and a mobile blood bank.
A post car, a dumpster, heading the queue.
